

Joint ERAB / EBC Meeting

Meeting between biomedical and brewing scientists
Thursday, September 22nd, Sofitel Old Town, Wrocław, Poland
15.30 - 18.30.
The meeting will be followed by dinner.

The focus of this meeting will be the differences between non-alcoholic and standard beer in terms of composition and possible health promoting effects.

Chairman: Professor Ramon Estruch

15.30 Welcome and introduction -

Professor Ramon Estruch, Member of the ERAB Advisory Board.

Dr.-Ing. Carsten Zufall, Chairman of the EBC Brewing Science Group.

15.45 The differences in production technology between alcoholic and non alcoholic beer and the resulting differences in the composition of these respective beers.

Dr. Achim Zürcher, Feldschlösschen Brauerei (Carlsberg), Switzerland
Questions

16.15 The differences between alcoholic and non alcoholic beer on the health of consumers.

Prof. Dr. Giuseppe Perretti, Direktor CERB (Centro di Eccellenza per la Ricerca sulla Birra), Perugia, Italy.

Questions

16.45 Friend or foe - the impact of beer consumption on the human microbiome.

Dr. Dr. Sascha Venturelli, University Hospital of Tuebingen, Germany.

Questions

17.15 Panel Discussion - areas needing further research

Led by Dr. Dr. Sascha Venturelli,

18.00 Wrap-up and discussion of topics for future joint meetings

ERAB and EBC Brewing Science Group Chairmen

Next meetings

- 2017 - Sunday May 14th, Ljubljana, Slovenia.
- 2018 - Joint International Meeting on Alcohol and Global Health (IMAG) September or October